DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Rickey shares his personal experience of thinking “those” Jesus followers were “crackpots”. And then he had his God paradigm busted. Have you ever sat back in criticism of those who had it “all wrong”, only to realize later they weren’t so crazy after all?
2. Think back to your early awareness of Jesus, whether that was last week or 20+ years ago. Describe your understanding of Jesus at that point, and how your relationship has grown and changed since that time.
3. Sometimes, significant growth in human relationships happens through painful, trying seasons. And, the same is true in our relationship with Jesus. What’s been the most difficult, painful experience you’ve experienced in your walk with Jesus?
4. Do you resonate with Rickey’s description of levels of faith? Is this a helpful way for you to think about your faith? Or not?
5. What do you think about miracles, in the name of Jesus, in the 21st century?
